St. Michael Prayer

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a

Psalms 147

1 Corinthians 10:16-17

John 6:51-58

We live on every word that comes from the mouth of God. "Praise the Lord, Jerusalem." The cup we bless and the bread we break are a participation in the body of Christ. Jesus is the living bread come down from heaven.

It is food and drink that sustains us as humans, a fact especially obvious to someone who is starving and thirsty. In the desert, God sustains the Chosen People with a food—manna—they've never seen before. The Eucharist, however, is truly unique, for it is Christ's own Body and Blood. Paul points out that consuming it means that we participate in Christ's sacrifice. Jesus himself says it is essential to truly have life within you. May the word of God we hear today prepare us to receive the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist.
