'The Spirit Makes All Things Possible'

By Adeline Jean

The readings of this Fourth Sunday of Advent reveal how God makes all things possible through the power of the Holy Spirit.

In the First Reading (2 Samuel 7:1-5, 8-12, 14, 16), we meet David, from whom Jesus, whose birth is announced in the Gospel Reading (Matthew 1:1-17), descended. What both of these scriptures have in common is that a revelation was God made and was accepted. King David pondered why he was living so comfortably while God resided in a tent. This made him decide to take matters into his own hands. He even obtained the blessing of Nathan the prophet who said to him, "Go, do whatever you have in mind, for the LORD is with you." Yet, that same night, the Spirit of the Lord spoke to Nathan telling him to remind David of all He had done for him and of all He was going to do as well. David accepted the Lord's word, and this led him to lift up a prayer of thanksgiving to God (18-29).

Mary also had her own life plan, which the Lord interrupted, promising her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you... for nothing will be impossible for God." Like David, Mary did not probe for the details, did not question the Lord's reasoning, did not doubt that God had actually spoken to her or that he could and would do what He promised. Instead, David and Mary accepted God's proposal and even praised Him, David's prayer of Thanksgiving, and Mary's Magnificat. They praised Him without knowing all the details, more so, not knowing how the impossible could be possible.

God does not make mistakes. He knows what He is doing every step of the way in our lives. He permits everything to happen in our lives. Our response should be like the examples set by David and Mary. David a repentant sinner, and Mary immaculately conceived, were equally called and both recognized the majesty of God.

When God speaks, our response should not be hesitation, doubt, or fear. We have to believe that God always has our best interest at heart because He has the perfect plan for our lives. Jesus' coming is part of that plan. We have the chance each Christmas to remember that Jesus came into this world as a reflection of God's love for us, a love that knows no bounds.

At the same time, Christmas allows us to anticipate the Second Coming of Christ. The Second Coming of Jesus' will mean that the righteous souls will be brought back to life and taken up to heaven together with the righteous who are alive on the earth.

There is no Christian who does not anticipate this Second Coming because this is the foundation of our faith. The Holy Spirit makes it possible for us to hear the Lord's word, to embrace it, and to allow the Lord to work in our lives in ways that are only possible through our complete surrender.

Prayer: Jesus, give me the gift of acceptance. May I accept your will, your plan for my life, my destiny without question, without grumbling, without fear. Amen

Prayer for the Sixth Bishop of the Diocese of St. Thomas in the V.I.

Eternal God, shepherd and guide,
In your mercy give to your Church's ministry in the Diocese of St. Thomas in the V.I., a shepherd after your own heart and a man filled with the Holy Spirit who will walk in your ways.

With loving care, watch over your people. Give us a leader of vision, love, hope and joy; and a teacher of your truth.

May your kingdom be built up and your name glorified; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen
